

Apollo Summit For Clean Energy & Good Jobs

Feb. 25 ~ 26, 2007
Hotel Washington, 515 15th St., NW
Washington, D.C.

Summit Program

Sunday, February 25, 2007 – Apollo’s Vision & Strategy

5:30 p.m. Opening reception, cocktails & buffet – Ballroom

5:30 p.m. VIP Reception – Sky Room

7– 9:00 p.m. Apollo’s Agenda, 2007-2008 - Ballroom

- Welcome
 - Carl Pope, Executive Director, Sierra Club and Co-Chair of Apollo National Advisory Board
 - Leo Gerard, International President, United Steelworkers and Co-Chair of Apollo National Advisory Board

- “New Day, New Vision”
 - Mindy Lubber, President, CERES

- Panel Discussion – Clean Energy, Good Jobs discussion about how collaborative efforts of industry, labor, and environmentalists have grown the market for clean energy, created good jobs, and contributed to climate solutions.
 - Mindy Lubber, President, CERES, moderator
 - Bob Balgenorth, President, State Building & Construction Trades Council, California
 - Leo Gerard, President, United Steelworkers
 - Jim Gordon, President, Cape Wind
 - Ron Kenedi, Vice President, Sharp Solar
 - Patricia Vincent, President, Public Service Company of Colorado (Xcel Energy)

Monday, February 26 – “Stronger Together for Clean Energy & Good Jobs”

7:30 – 8:30 a.m. Breakfast – Ballroom

New Governors, New Energy

- Gov. Bill Ritter, D-Colorado
- Gov. Deval Patrick, D-Massachusetts

8:30 - 9:00 a.m. Apollo Strategy & Conference Goals - Ballroom

- Jerome Ringo, President, Apollo Alliance

State & Cities Leading the Way – Plenary Session 1

9:00 – 10:15 a.m. New Fuels for Oil Independence - Ballroom

- Rich Feldman, Executive Director, Worker Center, King County Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and Coordinator, Washington State Apollo Alliance, moderator
- Sue Beitlich, WI Farmers Union
- Keith Cole, Director of Legislative and Regulatory Affairs, General Motors
- Roger Duncan, Deputy General Manager, Austin Energy
- John Plaza, President, Imperium Renewables

This session will highlight strategies for how localities, states and the federal government can help build markets for new fuels and advanced automotive technologies that will renew our rural economy, save good US auto-making jobs, enhance our national security, and curb global warming pollution.

States & Cities Leading the Way - Breakout Sessions

10:30 a.m. – 11:45 p.m.

Breakout 1: High Performance Buildings & Job Creation – Park View Room

- Don Gilligan, President, National Association of Energy Services Companies, moderator
- Elsa Barboza, Campaign Coordinator, Strategic Concepts in Organizing and Policy Education (SCOPE), Los Angeles, CA
- Ed Ott, Executive Director, New York City Central Labor Council
- Steve Cowell, President, Conservation Services Group
- Dave Hamilton, Director, Sierra Club Global Warming & Energy Program

Retrofitting outdated buildings with modern lights, windows, insulation, and HVAC systems can save enormous amounts of energy and money, while creating thousands of good jobs for local communities in manufacturing, construction, and maintenance. Our panelists will explore how community groups, unions, and businesses can work with local, state, and federal government to set standards, arrange financing, and provide training to create a vast new industry upgrading public, commercial, and residential buildings.

Breakout 2: Policies and Partnerships for a Clean Power Future – Capital Room

- Carla Din, Western Regional Field Director, Apollo Alliance, moderator
- Marty Aikens, IBEW Local 103, Massachusetts
- Matt Baker, Executive Director, Environment Colorado
- Todd Foley, External Affairs and Business Development, BP Solar
- Lee Smith, Chief Financial Officer, National Photovoltaic Construction Partnership

Business, labor, and environmentalists have won impressive victories working with state and local government to expand the market for clean power, manufacturing, and good jobs. These experts will explain the nuts & bolts of putting together winning coalitions.

12:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Lunch – Ballroom

12:45 – 2:00 p.m.

Plenary 2: Moving Labor & Public Pension Funds into Clean Energy Investments - Ballroom

- Damon Silvers, Associate General Counsel, AFL-CIO, moderator
- Matt Cheney, President, MMA Renewable Ventures
- Tom Croft, Director of the Heartland Network and Executive Director of the Steel Valley Authority
- Winston Hickox, Advisor, CalPERS
- Ken Locklin, Director of Finance and Investment, Clean Energy Group
- Tom Martin, Senior Vice President, Pacific Corporate Group

The panel of union and private sector investment professionals will discuss concrete ways that labor can partner with clean energy businesses through pension fund investments.

2:30 – 3:45 p.m. – Federal Action -- Breakout Sessions

Breakout 3: Advanced Automotive Manufacturing – Capital Room

- Bob Baugh, Executive Director, Industrial Union Department, AFL-CIO, moderator
- Susan Helper, Professor, Case Western University
- Deron Lovaas, Vehicles Campaign Director, Natural Resources Defense Council
- Walter McManus, Director, Automotive Analysis Division, University of Michigan Transportation Research Institute
- Brad Markell, International Representative, United Autoworkers

This panel will explore the potential for public incentives to support retooling of the domestic auto industry to manufacture more fuel efficient, advanced drive train vehicles, save good jobs, and reduce global warming pollution.

Breakout 4: Federal Supports for Clean Power – Park View Room

- Roger S. Ballentine, President, Green Strategies, Inc., moderator
- Rhone Resch, President, Solar Energy Industry Association
- Jamie Steve, Legislative Director, American Wind Energy Association
- George Sterzinger, Executive Director, Renewable Energy Policy Project
- David Mallino, Legislative Representative, AFL-CIO

These experts will outline a near-term federal agenda to create good jobs by growing the clean power sector, including renewable energy, clean coal, carbon sequestration and other technologies.

4:00 – 5:15 p.m.

Plenary 3: The New Urban Agenda: Creating Clean Energy & Community Jobs - Ballroom

- Van Jones, Executive Director, Ella Baker Center, moderator
- Jennifer Badgley, Organizer/Agent, IBEW Local 569
- Glen Brand, Director, Sierra Club Cool Cities Program
- Carlton Brown, Chief Operating Officer, Full Spectrum Development Co.
- Baye Wilson, Executive Director, Lincoln Park Coast Cultural District, New Jersey

From Los Angeles & Oakland to Newark & Trenton, cities have emerged as hotbeds of new thinking and new partnerships about building a new energy future. Drawing together developers, financiers, inner city residents, labor unions, and a new political leadership, the innovators on this panel will discuss how to tap some of our most best and most neglected resources to create new clean energy opportunities for all.

5:15 – 5:30 p.m. Wrap Up, Jerome Ringo

5:30 – 7:00 p.m. Cocktail Reception – Sky Room

7:00 – 9:00 p.m. Gala Dinner & Presentation – Washington Room

7:45 – 9:00 p.m.

Program Clean Energy Jobs

- Jerome Ringo, President, Apollo Alliance
- Michael Peck, Founder & Principal, MAPA Group and Gamesa Energy USA
- Carl Pope, Executive Director, Sierra Club
- Mayor Douglas Palmer, Trenton, NY, and President, U.S. Conference of Mayors
- Richard Trumka, Secretary-Treasurer, AFL-CIO

Keynote:

- Governor Ed Rendell, D-Pennsylvania (keynote)